Do you wish to apply for the WBSO? Do the quick scan!

Can you answer one of the following questions with a Yes?
1. Do you develop products?
2. Do you develop production processes?
3. Do you develop ICT solutions (software)?
4. Do you carry out technical scientific research?

Do you resolve the technical bottlenecks in your development yourself?
or
Do you search for the answers to your technical scientific research questions yourself?

Do you have yet to begin, or are you still carrying out, development or research?

Does your development or research work take place within the EU?

Do you pay Dutch corporate wage tax or wage tax?

I pay corporate wage tax (private or public limited liability company) and am not a public knowledge institute
I pay wage tax and have a one-man business, general partnership or limited partnership

Do you withhold Dutch payroll tax from the wages of your employees who carry out your development or research?

Do you think that you will carry out yourself at least 500 hours on development or research this year?

As a tax withholding agent you meet the basic conditions attached to use of the WBSO.
As a self-employed person you meet the basic conditions attached to use of the WBSO.

For a quick indication of financial benefits the WBSO programme could offer you, please go to www.rvo.nl/wbso (see 'Financieel voordeel') or check the online financial calculation tool. This information is only available in Dutch.

A positive outcome of this Quick Scan is not a guarantee that your WBSO application will be approved after due assessment of its contents.